Worship Sunday, May 22

The Music Ministry at the Mud Creek Campus will present Music Sunday. Much like our music weekend Christmas concerts, the Bell Choirs, Chancel Choir, and Orchestra will lead our morning services. Additional prelude music will begin each service. We hope you will join us as we worship together in song, word, and communion.

Mud Creek Campus Worship

- In person at 9:00 am (prelude at 8:45 am) & 10:30 am (prelude at 10:15 am)
- 10:30 am live stream online youtube.com/mudcreeklive

"...Caesar's,' they replied. Then he said, 'Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God'" (Matthew 22:21).

To conclude the series, we explore not one, but two taboo topics: religion and politics. Jesus understood politics as "the affairs of the city." What if the Gospel is more political than anyone imagines, but in a way that no one guesses?

Join us for the discussion of The Weight of a Piano by Chris Candor. One reviewer writes, "At the heart of this novel is an old German upright piano whose music reverberates through the stories of two seemingly unconnected people twisting their strands together. The author explores how art and music change and enrich our lives, often in remarkable ways." Contact Elena Derbique at elena.derbique@gmail.com.

“Fly-Over” Books of the Bible

- Mud Creek Campus
- Tuesdays, beginning May 24 through June 28, 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm
- The class will also be streamed via Zoom

Transcontinental flights seldom land in certain states, so travelers call them “fly-over states.” Likewise, we seldom study or preach from several short books of the Bible. Join Joe Allison and Maribeth Westerfield for a 6-week study of these “fly-over books.” Email Joe Allison to enroll at hoosierjoe@hotmail.com.

Family from Afghanistan Needs a Car

Since January, we have been co-sponsoring a family of five who fled from Afghanistan when the Taliban took over. The Mohabats are settling in well. The next large item that this family needs is a reliable vehicle—one that will fit five people (one of whom is in a car seat). Contact Pastor Deb Strock-Kuss if you've got a lead. Thank you!
