Worship Sunday, May 29

"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8).

On this Ascension Sunday, we will witness the call of Jesus to join those before us, to claim our voice and proclaim a God who is active in our world. We will be challenged to change our point of view from looking up to looking around as we see the divine in each other. Join us this Sunday as we open ourselves up to who God is calling us to be, care for, love, and serve in this world.

This weekend, all worship services will have candles lit in memory of those who lost their lives in the Uvalde, Texas, elementary school shooting.

Mud Creek Campus Worship

- In person at 9:00 am and 10:30 am
- 10:30 am live stream online youtube.com/mudcreeklive

"A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; ... The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul" (16:14a, 14c).

It was through believers like Lydia that the early church grew. She was a Gentile who followed the teachings of Jesus. She was also unusual in that she was a single, widowed, and wealthy woman, sharing the gifts of hospitality and support to the likes of traveling missionaries.

This Sunday is a Family Worship Sunday. All children are invited to worship with their families at both services. This gives our ministry volunteers a well-deserved break and our children the opportunity to experience the worship service. Childcare is still available for children 4 and under at both services.

Promise Road Campus

- 9:02 am & 10:00 am in person
