Worship Sunday, June 12

"...hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit..." (Romans 5:5).

The theological concept of justification by faith can seem deep and complex but Paul tries to make sense of it in his letter to the Romans. At its very heart is the idea of hope and when we put our hope in God's love, we are never disappointed.

"You should respond when I correct you. Look, I'll pour out my spirit on you. I'll reveal my words to you" (Proverbs 1:23 CEB).

We receive a number of invitations over the course of our lives. Some invitations make it onto our calendars and some give us the opportunity to rearrange our priorities and direction. What does it mean for us to be invited to live a life steeped in wisdom?

Other

Thank you, Esther! Welcome, Cara!

May 31 marked the end of an era and the beginning of a new one on the communication and design staff at Geist Christian Church.

Esther Sickle retired after 17 years on staff at Geist Christian Church. She joined the congregation as a member in 1986 and served on the building committee for the first building of the church (now the Mud Creek Campus Great Hall). Esther joined the staff in 2004 and has seen her position evolve through the years from the production of print materials like bulletins, newsletters, and program guides to website and social media and livestream content development. Abiding by her wishes not to have a thank-you reception, Pastors Ryan and Danny suggest dropping a note to Esther expressing appreciation for her years of service to the congregation. She can be reached at esther.sickle@gmail.com.

We welcome Cara Miller as our communications coordinator, who officially started on May 1 to have a month of overlap with Esther. Cara is an associate professor of English at Anderson University and will continue in that role. She is the editor for Anderson University Press and spent many years as the graphic designer and writer for Anderson University magazine. Cara and her husband and two children live in Fishers. She can be reached at cara.miller@geistchristian.org.
