Worship Sunday, January 1

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor" (Luke: 4:18-19).

Early in Jesus' ministry, he returns home to preach and teach in his home synagogue. It's a sermon that challenges those of his time—and us—as he pushes the boundaries of Love to include all of God's children. As we move into this new year, let's embrace this challenge and not respond as those who first heard this sermon years ago.

"Joseph got up and, during the night, took the child and his mother to Egypt" (Matthew 2:14).

The Christmas celebrations are over and the magi have visited, so what's next for the holy family? Much like us, some long and perhaps uncertain days lie ahead. The holy family's journey will teach us how to remain faithful during dark times."
